

JOKES

You Can't Teach an Old Dog to Fly.

A woman called our airline customer-service desk asking if she could take her dog on board.

"Sure," I said, "as long as you provide your own kennel." I further explained that the kennel needed to be large enough for the dog to stand up, sit down, turn around, and roll over.

The customer was perplexed: "I'll never be able to teach him all of that by tomorrow!"

Your Work E-mail is What?

I am employed at a computer security company and have a colleague whose name is M. Alware. His e-mail address is malware@company.com.

Clean Your Plate

The closest I've been to a diet this year is erasing food searches from my browser history

Social Media IRL (In Real Life)

I've given up social media for the New Year and am trying to make friends outside Facebook while applying the same principles. Every day, I walk down the street and tell passersby what I have eaten, how I feel, what I did the night before, and what I will do tomorrow. Then I give them pictures of my family, my dog, and me gardening. I also listen to their conversations and tell them I love them. And it works. I already have three people following me — two police officers and a psychiatrist
