

Newsletter January/February, 2017

Happy New Year to all out Members, I hope you had a good Xmas and New Year break.

It is now time to consider what subjects you would like to attend for the coming 1st Term which commences on Monday 6th February, 2017, the Timetable is on our Website and Blog and it shows the subjects we propose to run with, provided sufficient numbers are passed on to Ken for inclusion on the respective lists.

The following is an overview of Classes for Term 1:-

- Monday am:- Introduction to Computing - ok
- Monday pm:- Basic and General Apple/Mac - more numbers required
- Tuesday am:- Facebook – ok
- Tuesday am:- Twitter commencing 21-3-2017 – more numbers required
- Tuesday pm:- Email/Internet – more numbers required
- Wednesday am:- Picasa – numbers required
- Wednesday pm:- Ipad/Ebay ok
- Thursday am Group 1:- Basic Windows 10 – more numbers required
- Thursday pm:- Basic Word – more numbers required
- Friday am:- Advanced Word – ok
- Friday pm:- Powerpoint – numbers required

Please let Ken know by ringing our Club phone no: 4307 9421, by email: scccc@internode.on.net or through our Blog: scccckincumberblog.wordpress.com and use the box provided for contacting us. If contacting us by phone, please leave a clear message with your details. There has been some messages left that have been impossible to decipher as the people have spoken too fast and not clear enough.

If there is a subject that you would like to be considered as a future tutorial, please include a description on a sheet in the Club room or through the usual contact details above.

It is with regret that Windows Photo Gallery will not be included as a subject as it is no longer supported by Microsoft.

A reminder that all classes are now $10 from 1st Term - 6th February, 2017.

As it has been a problem contacting some members, please advise your Club when any of your details change especially your phone number and email address.

Happy Byting,
Ken.